

I am a Flight Attendant for ATA Airlines. It's difficult enough to get our passengers to listen to safety instructions; I cannot imagine how difficult it would be should there be an emergency and people are making calls on their cell phones. During flight the close quarters, even in 1st class, would cause much annoyance to passengers not using their cells. Keep the cell phones off, please, for safety sake if nothing else!!